Solarcollab"s Fast Track Landowner and Community Owned Solar Farm program in San Marino, California leverages Fintech protocols on the blockchain that allows us to be able to develop these solar projects in a low cost model so that we can offer equity shares of the solar project to the landowner and local community.

San Marino has installed over 4,200 private solar systems in the past 15 years, making it a global leader in solar energy production. These solar systems generate 5% of the country"s energy, boosting sustainability and energy independence.

form of high concentration PV (HCPV) with two-axis tracking. Concentrating the sunlight by a factor of between 300x to 1000x onto a small cell area enables the use of highly efficient but comparatively expensive multijunction- solar cells based on III-V semiconductors (e.g. - triple-junction solar cells made of GaInP/GaInAs/Ge).

In December 2009, Asia's biggest high-concentration photovoltaic (HCPV) solar power plant was unveiled. The new plant, located in Lujhu Township of Kaohsiung County, Taiwan, is spread across an area of 2ha. Following the plant's inauguration in December 2009, a month-long tune-up process was carried out in January 2010 before it became fully operational in February [...]

High concentration photovoltaic (HCPV) systems, which use Fresnel lenses or mirrors as concentrating optics, concentrate solar radiation onto highly efficient III-V multi-junction solar cells by a factor of up to 1000. HCPV devices are usually equipped with a two-axis sun tracker to track the sun in the sky and maximize the amount of direct ...
