Over the last decade, photovoltaic (PV) technologies have experienced tremendous growth globally. According to the International Renewable Energy Agency (IRENA), the installed capacity of PV increased by nearly a factor of 10, from 72.04 GW in 2011 to 707.4 GW in 2020 [1]. Meanwhile, the costs of manufacturing PV panels have dropped dramatically, ...

A performance study with experiments and TRNSYS simulations was conducted for two water-type roll-bond photovoltaic thermal (PVT) collectors installed in Chengdu, Sichuan, western China. The two PVT collectors differed in absorber plate configurations, one with a conventional harp-channel configuration and the other with a novel grid-channel arrangement.

4. The design of the absorber and the flow channel significantly affected the temperature distribution and cooling rate of PV panels. Honeycomb, grid and harp channels were found to be better than ...

The cold plate consists of several guided channels or ribbed walls of thickness 0.015 m to direct the circulating water flow from its entrance to the exit point at the back of the PV panel. The experiment demonstrates a decrease of around 21.2°C in surface temperature and improves ~2% in electrical efficiency, 8% in thermal efficiency and 1.6% in PV panel efficiency ...
