Flexible Solar Panels. Flexible solar panels are lightweight and versatile, making them particularly useful if you need a portable solution. Our flexible, rollable and folding/foldable solar panels use amorphous technologies, which tend to cover a larger area per watt than crystalline technologies.

The 12V/24V in product titles (ex. 150W 12V CIGS Solar panel) does not refer to the actual voltage ( $V_{oc}$  or  $V_{mp}$ ) of the solar panels, but rather to the voltage of the solar system or energy storage system to which the panel is best suited. The voltage of the solar panel must be higher than the solar system voltage.

If you purchase a 12v solar panel you should pair it with a 12v battery (a 12 volt lithium battery will work best with the 12 volt solar panels), a 12v inverter, and at least a 12v charge controller. A 24v solar panel should be used with a 24v battery bank, 24v inverter, and at least a 24v charge controller.

For example, a 100-watt flexible solar panel is often used on boats, while 200-300-watt products are used on RVs or off-grid shacks. To meet their solar power needs, users often connect several solar panels to get the combined wattage they want. The solar panel wattage is directly proportional to its cost.

NB: In some rare cases, a solar panel can be connected directly to a battery, without a controller. This can be achieved if the nominal voltage of the panel is lower than 17-18V, and if the solar panel is a lot smaller than the charging battery e.g.. a 10W panel charging a 100Ah battery. There are many different types of controllers on the market.

One of our 200W solar panel can be used for 12V or 24V battery charging. Applications include: motorhome, static caravans, mobile homes, live aboard boats where larger power requirements are generally required. Sunshine ...
